COLLEGE QUICK READ:

Mount Carmel College of Nursing

- ◎ Mount Carmel College of Nursing has the second largest undergraduate baccalaureate nursing enrollment in the state of Ohio. The only college of nursing in Ohio with a larger undergraduate enrollment is at Kent State University.
- ◎ A record number of MCCN sophomores participated in the traditional Sophomore Pinning Ceremony, the first to include students attending MCCN's Fairfield Medical Center campus in Lancaster, Ohio.
- ◎ MCCN's Second Degree Accelerated Program (SDAP) ended its third session with a record number of graduates. The class of 2010, numbering 62, earned a Mount Carmel BSN in 13 months. The fourth SDAP class is now underway with 70 students.
- ◎ Once again this May, MCCN graduates are poised to become Mount Carmel nurses. BSN graduates total nearly 160. A record number of master's degrees—ten—will also be awarded at Commencement.
- ◎ The Higher Learning Commission (HLC) granted accreditation to the MCCN satellite program at Fairfield Medical Center (MCCN-FMC). Granting membership in the Commission and in the North Central Association to degree-granting educational institutions in the North Central region, the HLC is recognized by the U.S. Department of Education and the Council on Higher Education Accreditation.
- ◎ Sigma Theta Tau Rho Omicron Chapter membership at MCCN grew following the induction of 79 new members—the highest number ever. Students who have completed half the nursing curriculum, have a minimum GPA of 3.0, and rank in the upper 35th percentile are invited to join. New inductees included nurse leaders demonstrating leadership or achievement in nursing, including research, publication, administration, consulting, practice, or education.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Alumni, Students and Friends,

As we enthusiastically welcome the coming of spring after this winter's record snowfall, here at Mount Carmel College of Nursing we welcome exciting opportunities in nursing education.

Our College is filled with the energy of committed, talented students in our various programs pursuing their dreams of a fulfilling nursing career. Our Second Degree Accelerated Program is at record enrollment. Our master's program is poised to offer a fourth track, the Family Nurse Practitioner, in addition to three existing tracks in Adult Health, Nursing Education, and Nursing Administration. Our first MCCN satellite site, at Fairfield Medical Center in Lancaster, Ohio, is progressing. We also plan to place our RN/BSN Completion Program on-line by late summer.

These initiatives support our mission to bring as many qualified candidates as possible into the nursing profession, a mission made possible by your support.

We are particularly grateful for your generous donations to our Annual Campaign and enjoyed speaking to so many of you during our 2010 Phone-a-thon.

I encourage you to consider joining our Mount Carmel College of Nursing Annual Giving Societies (see p.18), an exciting opportunity not only for giving, but also for attending events at the College that connect our valued donors in a regular, meaningful way with our mission.

Your support, whether it is monetary, as a volunteer with the Alumni Association, or with your prayers and good will, is more appreciated than we can possibly express.

Sincerely,

Ann E. Schiele, PhD, RN

Fun, friends, and the Florentine...Mount Carmel Alumni Association meetings combine commitment and celebration.

MOUNT CARMEL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION COMMITTED TO THE FUTURE, CELEBRATING THE PAST

If there's one place where the past and the future meet regularly, it is alumni associations—that preserve of precious memories and achievement that motivates members' determination to see the process continually and successfully repeat for each succeeding generation of students.

Kimberly Dillon '04 wanted to give back to Mount Carmel and is doing so in a big way, as the new Alumni Association president. “When I decided to get my BSN and looked at all available programs, Mount Carmel was the winner hands down. I am proud of the education I received at MCCN and want to preserve that honor for future generations of nurses.”

Dillon believes that the Mount Carmel Alumni Association is “a group as passionate about nursing and the next generation of nurses as I am. My experience on the board has been positive, especially because of the support we give to the current nursing students.”

David Small '08 is a graduate of the College's Second Degree Accelerated Program (SDAP). “In the spirit of paying it forward, the first SDAP class created a scholarship for future SDAP students. Joining the alumni board seemed like a great way to broaden the concept of personally paying it forward and a great way to grow and secure the SDAP scholarship as a permanent MCCN program.”

Small was impressed from his very first board meeting. “It was actually something to sit among the range of nurses, from retirees to accomplished contemporaries, who populated the room.” In addition to championing the SDAP scholarship, Small's focus is mentoring. “New nurses can really benefit from role models and professional support outside the work structure.”

MCCN Director of Development Jan Burkey (far right) addresses the alumni at a meeting.

Matthew Lake '07 serves as treasurer, a good fit due to his previous career (BA in finance and accounting). “This is my first experience on a professional board. I believe it will keep me in touch with Mount Carmel College of Nursing. I also believe it is a way to ‘network.’ There are members who work at companies other than Mount Carmel. It provides a way to gather information about these companies.”

When Lake joined the board, “I felt I could utilize my free time better. Since I average three workdays a week, I have four days off to do something. I thought I might as well use my time constructively and for a good cause.”

Ashley Turner '07 feels proud to be a nurse and graduate of a very well known program and wanted to give back. “MCCN prepared me for every aspect of nursing and opened doorways that allowed me to be where I am today as a neonatal ICU nurse at Ohio State.”

“As a new face on the board this year, I feel that the other members have welcomed me and ideas that I may have,” says Turner. “Becoming part of our alumni board has enhanced my personal life by allowing me to give back to the College and future nurses; as those before me have done. I also believe it will enhance my professional life by allowing me to network with current and future nurses.”

Tara Lancione '06 believes that MCCN has a personal touch to it that contributes to students’ success. “As Mount Carmel alumni, we keep our connections to each other and MCCN through supporting the College and the Alumni Association. The Alumni Association has a lot to offer.”

Lancione enjoys the meetings, where ways to help the College, fellow alumni, and today’s nursing students are discussed.

“Anytime we help one another is always time well-spent,” says Lancione, who also gives her time to a cause she initiated, “Nurturing the Nursing Profession,” which sponsors an annual event and encourages the community to value the nursing profession.

Donna Maloney '85 and '06 joined “to help keep the Alumni Association active in the lives of those who have graduated and also for those currently attending, just as those before us had done. We need to continue working to maintain the scholarships for seniors and the assistance of loans for other students.”

Maloney served as treasurer for several years, then as president for several years. She took a break and came back last summer to serve as the membership chair. “I have seen the Alumni Association from many different perspectives – involvement keeps you in touch with the past and the future of nursing and the time commitment depends on how much you want to do.”

Stephanie Rae Adams Piquero '97 is the new vice president of the association, and she is enthusiastic about the alumni stories project (see p. 13). “A compilation of stories from alumni would allow students to see the similarities and differences between what nursing education is and has been. We have alumni in so many different aspects of nursing in many different settings. It would be beneficial to capture that in a compilation, and fun for alumni to reminisce about their careers.”

Piquero enjoys reconnecting with fellow alumni, the honor of choosing the annual scholarship recipients, and interacting with students a few times a year. “I feel it is important to pass down what it means to be a Mount Carmel nurse. There is no one better to do that than Mount Carmel alumni,” says Piquero.

The new president of the Alumni Association invites more of her fellow alumni to join the group, to commit to a couple of hours a month. “It’s a very small amount of time in the grand scheme of things,” says Dillon. “I think that I am a better person/nurse when I give something back to nursing. I want to support others who are called to take this journey.” 🇺🇸

NEW GRADS CARRY ON THE MOUNT CARMEL TRADITION

The past few years have produced one record-breaking MCCN graduate total after another, with new Mount Carmel nurses taking their places in a lineage more than a century old. The Lamp caught up with three recently launched grads of the College.

Cherie Whittington Campbell '06 served as the first president of the Student Government Association (SGA) when it was established at the College, and always recommends MCCN when asked about her education.

“I learned all my skills at MCCN. It is amazing how everything I learned there just comes together when I am working,” says Campbell, who began her career on the medical telemetry floor and now works in the ICU at Clinton Memorial Hospital in her hometown of Wilmington, Ohio.

Del Enderle '08 was also active at the College and SGA, serving as vice president. “I learned how to prioritize at MCCN, and that is key to being a nurse,” Enderle says. He works nights at Mount Carmel St. Ann’s in the cardiac intermediate care unit.

“I help a current student with nursing studies, and I can’t believe how I remember every single detail. I am so glad I received my nursing education at MCCN. This memory of my nursing classes helps me better explain things to patients.” Enderle would like to make MCCN his choice for graduate studies. He plans to organize a ski club for students and alumni next winter.

Dani Newell '09 personifies dedication to MCCN, literally, as she donned the persona of the College mascot—The Mighty Night—while a student at the College. And Newell is still dedicated. Along with her alumni aunts, Molly Wanner Taylor '80 and Sally Wanner Martin '83, Newell raised $2,000 at a family reunion to fund a second scholarship in memory of her aunt and their mother, Mary Catherine “Katie” Breen Wanner '47.

Newell works as a pediatric nurse at the Franklin County Juvenile Detention Center, where she functions in a supervisory role as the baccalaureate trained RN among LPNs. “Here I am, just 22 and brand new, but MCCN really prepared me. I wasn’t aware of how prepared I was to be in a supervisory role,” says Newell. “My education makes me feel really confident.”

Newell looks forward to returning to Mount Carmel nursing education next month. In May she begins the master’s track in Nursing Education, along with friend and fellow alumna, Chelsea Ball '09. “I hope someday to teach at MCCN,” says Newell, who will attend graduate school full-time while working. “I want to be the next Deloris Bills (current MCCN instructor).”

ANNOUNCING THE NEW MCCN NURSING CENTER

The new MCCN Nursing Center will provide a means for people in the Franklinton community surrounding the College to access healthcare, as well as a means for undergraduate and graduate nursing students to implement the knowledge and skills they are learning at the College. Because the center will be located on campus, clients will have access to the resources at MCW, such as lab, X-ray, and other healthcare provider specialties. The center is projected to open in mid-summer 2010.

MCCN-FMC Program Earns Accreditation

In December 2009, the Higher Learning Commission granted accreditation to Mount Carmel College of Nursing's first nursing education satellite site at Fairfield Medical Center (MCCN-FMC) in Lancaster, Ohio.

A collaboration among MCCN, Fairfield Medical Center (FMC), and Ohio University-Lancaster, the new MCCN-FMC program delivers the same nursing education in the Mount Carmel tradition of excellence, at a location convenient to the Lancaster, Ohio, area.

Then in January 2010, another first occurred when the class of 2012 celebrated the College's traditional Sophomore Pinning Ceremony, which included the first sophomores from MCCN-FMC. There are 20 sophomores in this new program.

"This ceremony is symbolic as the recognition of our students' hard work and perseverance; as the celebration of a significant turning point in nursing education, and as the presentation of the 'lamp pin,' which heralds this new adventure for our sophomore nursing students," says MCCN President/Dean, Ann E. Schiele, PhD, RN.

"This is also a milestone event because we celebrated the very first pinning ceremony with our students in the MCCN program at Fairfield Medical Center," adds Dr. Schiele.

MCCN-FMC Students Initiate Unique Pre-Clinicals Tradition

Every nurse remembers the first clinical experiences as a student. Students at MCCN's new satellite site at Fairfield Medical Center (MCCN-FMC) decided to make the very first clinicals there memorable for the FMC nurses as well as the students.

Students baked cookies to be distributed among the nurses' break rooms throughout the Fairfield Medical Center (FMC) hospital.

"The cookies were a way of introducing ourselves and showing our appreciation and excitement for the program partnership between MCCN and FMC," says student and organizer, Cora Arledge. "It was a thank you in advance to the nurses who guide the MCCN-FMC students as we rotate through clinicals."

The Fairfield and Columbus MCCN locations offer the same baccalaureate nursing program and share instructors, including Mount Carmel alumni: Missy Mohler '97, Theresa Skybo '86, Teresa Fuller '97, and Cheryl Creamer Mace '75.

MCCN HONORED FOR COMMUNITY SERVICE

Mount Carmel College of Nursing was recently named to the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll by the Corporation for National and Community Service.

The mission of the Corporation for National and Community Service is to improve lives, strengthen communities, and foster civic engagement through service and volunteering.

The Corporation for National and Community Service supports citizenship, service, and responsibility, promoting the ideal that every American has skills and talents to give. It is the nation's largest grantmaker supporting service and volunteering.

Congratulations to all of our College volunteers who made this recognition possible!

62 SDAP III STUDENTS NOW MOUNT CARMEL ALUMNI

The Second Degree Accelerated Program (SDAP) completion ceremony was held on January, 29, 2010, marking the third and largest SDAP class to complete the rigorous 13-month program.

The ceremony included the Nurse's Prayer; and reflections on service and caring, learning and leadership, and support and friendship. The happy new grads celebrated with family and friends at a reception following the event.

At the ceremony, the Lamp Award was given to Shannon Murphy '10; the Inspiration Award to Abby Willis '10; and the Clinical Excellence award to Robin Konrad '10. The SDAP Alumni Caring Leadership Awards, including a $500 grant each, were presented by the first two classes of SDAP alumni to Shannon Candio '10 and Cristin Durbin '10.

Two members of the class were awarded commissions as officers in active military service: Cassandra Wilkin '10 in the United States Army and Derek Harris '10 in the United States Air Force.

"It's truly amazing how 13 months just flies by. As these students leave to start their careers, there's no break in the SDAP world, with 70 new students already well into their 13-month process," says Barbi Potts, SDAP Coordinator. "Working with the SDAP students is a wonderful journey that is like a merry-go-round. There is always another class to keep the cycle moving, no stopping in SDAP!"

Congratulations to our newest alumni!

The SDAP Alumni Caring Leadership Award Given by the First and Second SDAP Classes

The SDAP Alumni Award is a "pay it back/ pay it forward" program initiated by SDAP graduates to recognize their alma mater for providing a life-changing educational experience by directly supporting students currently enrolled in the program.

Congratulations to the SDAP Class of 2010 on earning a Mount Carmel BSN in just 13 months!

"The award gives back to the College in thanks for providing this innovative, life-changing program and pays forward by providing support in recognition of the financial and personal sacrifices the SDAP students make to join the nursing profession," said David Small '08.

The idea was generated five days before the 2008 class graduated. The SDAP I class felt grateful for the program and wanted to give back to it and honor the SDAP faculty. One grant of $500 was awarded to SDAP class of 2009 graduate, Nicole Leotta '09.

The SDAP I class contributes $20/person for five years and invited SDAP II to consider the same donation, so the legacy can grow with each class. "A majority of the 2009 class agreed to join this project, so we were able increase the amount of award money given to the class of 2010," said Small.

And they did, with two awards of $500 each given to members of the class of 2010: Shannon Candio '10 and Cristin Durbin '10.

The basis for the award is caring leadership. "There are many awards based on scholarship. We wanted our award to be based on a commitment and ability to perform in a manner consistent with the caring and compassionate components of our nursing education at MCCN," said Small.

Shannon Candio stated that, if accepted to the SDAP, she would "use her nursing degree to support mission trips to foreign countries such as Haiti, where many children do not have so much as a warm bed to sleep in or even a roof over their head." Little did she know how prescient her words would be. While a student, Candio was also a patient, when she experienced a trans-ischemic attack (mini-stroke). Candio will use the grant to pay medical bills and to travel to Haiti to "give back the wonderful gifts that she has been given: grace, knowledge and health."

Shannon Candio '10, (right) recipient, SDAP Alumni Caring Leadership Award, with Barbi Potts, SDAP Coordinator

Cristin Durbin stated in her application that she had “a desire to make a difference in the world” and entered the SDAP program “in a quest to bring positive energy into peoples’ daily lives.” She defines caring leadership as “a desire to be of service to others in a manner that encompasses authenticity, acceptance and being truly present in each situation, thereby offering her best self while creating full human connections with her patients as well as with those with whom she works.”

Participating in this year’s selection committee were Sara Shaffer '08, David Small '08, and Laurie Miller '09. There are no requirements for use of the grant; it is intended to offset the debt many of the SDAP students typically have after completing the program. ✈

RECORD NUMBER ENROLLED IN FOURTH SDAP CLASS

With 70 students, SDAP IV began the 13-month odyssey to the BSN on January 4, 2010, and will conclude on January 28, 2011. “Receiving the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation grant helped the College to increase the SDAP class size. There were sixteen $10,000 scholarships awarded to increase diversity in nursing,” said Barbi Potts, M.Ed, BSN, RN, CCRN, SDAP Coordinator.

Applicants qualifying for one of these new scholarships came from groups underrepresented in nursing; for example, racial or ethnic minorities, as well as males. Also qualifying were applicants from disadvantaged backgrounds, such as incomes below poverty level, unable to obtain educational loans, or first generation college students.

Those accepting the scholarships agreed to certain obligations, including participation in mentoring and leadership development programs provided by MCCN, passing the NCLEX, and providing follow up information to MCCN about employment status 6-12 months post graduation.

As in the first three SDAP classes, the previous degrees earned by the SDAP IV participants cover a widely diverse range, including physiology, biology, dental hygiene, law, marketing, sociology, psychology, business, chemistry, zoology, speech communications, kinesiology, education, design, nutrition, English, and more.

New this year is the high number of students, and a new modified program flow with students moving through the program in two tracks.

“The SDAP faculty appreciates the adult learner and, like all educators, find ourselves learning from our students, who represent many different professional backgrounds and diverse cultures,” said Potts. “SDAP students come in knowing that the program is accelerated for them; and that means the pace is accelerated for the faculty as well.”

An EMT-Basic since 1998 and firefighter since 1999, SDAP student Brad Marsh is a U.S. Army officer assigned to the Air Defense Artillery and previously stationed in Korea; Tacoma, Washington; and Iraq.

“My path in the Army took me away from healthcare, but I found a way to be active in that area as a volunteer firefighter and first responder. Through these experiences, I knew I wanted to find a path back to medicine.”

His father’s bone marrow transplant showed him nursing was the path. “I saw nurses working day in and day out to help my father meet their objectives of treatment and get back on his feet. I wanted to join this noble profession,” Marsh says.

“SDAP is not for the weary. We push ourselves and each other to ensure success. I look around and see the most professional people I have ever met. SDAP was the best choice for me, and I thank MCCN for the opportunity to follow my path!”

MCCN GRAD AT THE FOREFRONT OF THE FLU FIGHT

Volunteerism Given Local Media Recognition

In a Columbus Dispatch (11-12-09) article about the volunteers who made the community vaccination clinics last fall possible, a Mount Carmel graduate, Nicole Nutter McGarity '08, was featured. McGarity is a MCCN RN-BSN graduate and currently a manager in the Mount Carmel West Emergency Department.

McGarity administered vaccine at an H1N1 vaccine clinic recently as an Ohio Medical Reserve Corp volunteer, along with several other MCHS/MCCN nurses and nursing students.

The mission of the Ohio Medical Reserve Corps (OMRC) is to establish teams of local volunteer medical and public health professionals who can contribute their skills and expertise throughout the year as well as during times of community need.

“Many of Franklin County’s most vulnerable residents receive their vaccines because of the service that volunteers like Nicole provide at each of these clinics,” said Assistant Professor, Darrell Spurlock, Jr., PhD, RN. “I’m always pleased to see a MCCN graduate make the news for the good work they are doing in our community!”

ALUMNI PROFILE

Kimberly Dillon '04

Kimberly Dillon '04

Our New Alumni Association President

Kimberly Dillon, RN, CNOR, BSN, RNFA, is “really passionate about nursing,” and it shows. Dillon serves as president of the Mount Carmel Alumni Association and the AORN (Association periOperative Registered Nurses), and achieves her master of science in nursing with a legal concentrate from Capital University in May.

Dillon’s 25-year career as a nursing professional began with a diploma from Massillon Community Hospital School of Nursing, included a first job in the OR, ten years in labor and delivery, and then a return to her first love—the OR.

Dillon’s newest position is the clinical nursing liaison for the implementation at Mount Carmel Health of the Genesis program, Trinity Health’s initiative to unite state-of-the-art computer information systems with evidence-based and best-practice processes in clinical patient management and other management aspects of the system. Dillon’s responsibility on the leadership team is to orient, teach, and serve as a resource for the nursing staff.

“Genesis is an exciting concept. Although I will miss the OR, I will now work to ensure patient safety for many throughout the Mount Carmel Health system, instead of for one patient at a time as I did in surgery,” says Dillon.

Growing up, Dillon was torn between teaching and nursing. But as a nursing professional, she finds that she has had several teaching opportunities—as a surgical technology instructor, training new staff and student nurses, and educating patients.

As president of the Alumni Association, Dillon encourages her fellow alumni to help today’s nursing students.

“Whether we are assisting them with scholarship funds, by serving a free breakfast during finals, or treating senior students to a 50-day dinner as they count down to graduation, we contribute to the future of our profession and preserve the heritage, dedication, and traditions that connect us,” Dillon says.

“I encourage every alumnus to get involved, even in a small way. Some of these commitments take only an hour or two. Join us. I promise you, we are going to have fun!”

Kimberly invites anyone interested in Alumni Association activities to contact her at Kadrn85@yahoo.com.

SEVENTH ANNUAL FLORIDA LUNCHEON

Fun at the Florida Alumni Luncheon 2010 (see below for names of attendees)

The tradition continued in February when an even dozen alumni gathered in Brandon, Florida, to celebrate their shared love for Mount Carmel and nursing. The luncheon is so well-loved that attendees generally return year after year. MCCN President/Dean, Dr. Ann Schiele, regretfully missed the luncheon due to a snowstorm in Columbus that cancelled flights and even closed the College, a rare occurrence.

Bess Eckard Whittington '58, the originator of the luncheon, was unable to attend but her two classmates and fellow organizers, Mary Lou Jones Yaufman '58 and M. Carolyn Kulp Souders '58, were there.

It was Whittington, who, at the 2003 Centennial celebration, mentioned to Dr. Schiele that there were many Mount Carmel alumni living in Florida, as well as many “snowbirds” in the winter months. Whittington suggested a reunion get-together and Dr. Schiele said, “Let’s do it.”

“On behalf of the College, the Alumni Association, and the luncheon attendees, we extend a big thank you to the planners,” said Phylis Motz Crook '63, Coordinator of Alumni Relations.

Enjoying the luncheon and the Florida sunshine were two alumni from the class of 1958, two from the class of 1959, two from the class of 1961, one from the class of 1963, one from the class of 1965, two from the class of 1967, one from the class of 1968, and one from the class of 1989.

Even More Fun in Florida

Next year there will be two Florida Alumni Luncheons. The next Tampa area reunion luncheon will be Tuesday, February 15, 2011, in Brandon, Florida. For the several alumni who live in or are February visitors to the Fort Myers/Naples area, there will be a reunion near them in 2011, on Tuesday, February 22, 2011.

Arizona Alumni Gather

Other alumni living in Florida (or anywhere!) are encouraged to get together to renew their Mount Carmel connection. Pat Brown Gates '63 spends the winters in Arizona and planned a March reunion there.

Alumni can contact Theresa Williams at MCCN (see pg 1) and ask about alumni living in or near their own zipcode. Theresa can supply a list and even mailing labels. 📧

GREETINGS FROM YOUR ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Dear Alumni,

This is my first letter to you as the new president of the Mount Carmel Alumni Association. I am honored to lead this group dedicated to our beloved alma mater and to the profession of nursing.

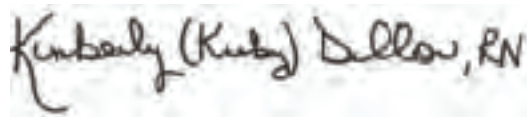

The Mount Carmel Alumni Association extends deepest appreciation to Jill Young Wallace '73, whose leadership spanned four years of remarkable accomplishments for our association, and to the Alumni Association board members who served.

To those board members who remain and the new board members who have joined us, I am thankful for your time and commitment. I look forward to working with all of our loyal Mount Carmel alumni in the year ahead.

There is always room for more of you to join us on the board, as committee members and/or attending our meetings. Your input is valuable and welcome. We'd love to have you join us. I invite you to contact me at kadrn85@yahoo.com.

And, of course, hope to see all of you here at the College on October 2 at the annual Alumni Association Banquet!

Sincerely,

IT'S ALL ABOUT GIVING BACK

The Phil and JoAnn Hall Scholarship Endowment

JoAnn Spitler Hall '51 and her husband, G. Philip Hall, recently established a scholarship endowment at Mount Carmel College of Nursing. “We feel we’ve been blessed and wanted to give back,” says JoAnn.

“We know how difficult it is for some students to have the opportunity financially to obtain an education, and we wanted to help in those situations,” JoAnn says. “Establishing the endowment enables us to give without financial penalty and it spares our children from having to take care of this later.”

JoAnn has happy memories of her time at Mount Carmel, especially of her “great class—just 41 of us, mostly from central Ohio.” The half dozen classmates who remain in the area still get together, particularly when their classmate, Sister Carol Hassey, MM '51, who composed the alma mater, comes into town. JoAnn recalls that the first male to graduate from Mount Carmel School of Nursing, Charles Boys '51, was also a member of her class.

“I fondly remember my ‘little sister’ at the school, Regina Sallee Williams, who graduated the year after me in 1952,” says JoAnn. Her “little sister” endowed the Dr. Regina M. Williams scholarship, which is awarded to an African American senior student each year.

“I have very loving memories of Mount Carmel, of the training, of the camaraderie. The doctors always requested the Mount Carmel nurses; our skills were a step above the others,” JoAnn says. “That excellence in nursing education has been retained and is in evidence at the College today. It is gratifying for us to know that Mount Carmel nursing students will benefit from our endowment for years to come.”

If you are interested in giving back, contact Director of Development Jan Burkey, who will help find the most meaningful way for you. Jan can be reached at 614-234-3837.

MOUNT CARMEL CLASS NOTES

Fran Parzinger McEwan ('51) has been married for 58 years and lives in Garland, Texas. She has five children, 15 grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren. And now she can add “published in a national magazine” to her accomplishments. The November 2009 issue of Reminisce Extra featured a story by Fran, including some great photos of her days at 127 South Davis Avenue. She shares how she met there the two great loves of her life—her husband and nursing.

Jan Messenger Garber ('57 and '00) lives in Galloway, Ohio. She and her husband celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in September. The festivities began with a Mass and the celebrant was a high school classmate of hers. A reception, hosted by her three daughters, completed the celebration.

Judy McElroy Dick ('58) lives in Columbus and has been married 50 years. She retired in 1985. She is the mother of six children and grandmother of nine.

Marilyn Butterfield Holloway ('63) and Kathleen McGovern Hojanacki ('64) had a long lunch and “lovely chat” with Sr. Kathryn Callahan CSC ('57) in December. They all live in or near South Bend, Indiana.

Susan Hyland Sievert ('65) lives in Redmond, Washington. She moved there to be near her son and family after her husband died four years ago. She retired from nursing in the 80s and then worked as an interior designer for 16 years.

Janet Colbow Niosi ('67) lives in Pembroke Pines, Florida. She is married and has a son and a granddaughter. She worked in a hospital setting doing bedside nursing from 1967 to 1990. She then changed to a Utilization Review/Case Manager position. She retired in 2008 and works “relief” in case management when others go on vacation.

John Marshall ('74) lives in Stow, Ohio. He received his BSN in 1984. He recently retired from 25 years of psychiatric nursing. He is now spending time volunteering at the Humane Society and a Rottweiler Rescue group. He summers in the Lake Erie islands.

Kathy Huntoon ('84) is married and lives in Reynoldsburg, Ohio. She works at Mount Carmel East. She and her hobby of designing and making historically correct rag dolls were featured in The Columbus Dispatch newspaper in December. She has made 81 dolls and typically spends 40-50 hours on each doll, not including the research. She researches each character so that her depiction is historically accurate. Her creations include Michelle Obama, Amelia Earhart, Annie Oakley, and Queen Elizabeth.

Cheryl Holmes White ('98) lives in Dublin, Ohio. She has been a NICU nurse for nine years. She works casual at Mount Carmel West in the Special Care Nursery. She also works full time in the NICU at Riverside Hospital. She writes, “One of my favorite parts of the job is developing relationships with the families I care for, not always easy to do in today’s world of adult medicine. I truly feel I make a difference in the lives of those I am privileged to serve.”

Shawn Young ('98) lives in Lancaster, Ohio. He resigned his position as the Unit Director for 3 Tower at Mount Carmel West and transitioned to the Hospice Program for the Mount Carmel Health System, where he serves as Clinical Manager.

Carolyn Carle ('00) lives in Galloway, Ohio, and is married. She received her MSN at The Ohio State University and is currently a doctoral candidate there.

Tara Lancione ('06) lives in Hilliard, Ohio. She owns a company called Enlighten Senses Organic that produces and sells organic body essentials made with organic ingredients. The company sponsors an annual event, “Nurturing the Nursing Profession.” The mission of this event is “to bring the national nursing shortage to everyone’s attention; show appreciation to our past, present and future nurses and raise money to fund scholarships and endowments.” She is a member at large on the Mount Carmel Alumni Association Board.

Alyson Camfield Evans ('07) lives in Gahanna, Ohio. She is a student in the master's program at Mount Carmel College of Nursing Linus Mubuifor ('09) lives in Baltimore, Maryland. He works at Johns Hopkins Medical Center in the Cardiac Progressive Care Unit.

Danielle Spradlin ('09) lives in Pickerington, Ohio. She is married and has a son. She works at Select Specialty Hospital at Mount Carmel West.

Cassie Wilkin ('10) lives in Columbus. Prior to entering the Second Degree Accelerated Program at Mount Carmel College of Nursing she was the administrator of a local pediatric practice. She has been accepted as a second lieutenant in the United States Army. In May, she will travel to San Antonio, Texas, for a nine-week Officer Training Course, and then move to Landstuhl, Germany for three years. Landstuhl is the first treatment center for wounded soldiers coming out of Afghanistan, Iraq, etc. She says, “This is the entire reason I decided to join the U.S. Army RN Corps. I cannot do what these soldiers do, but I can serve and care for them.”
